Community Visit to Science of Life Studies (SOLS)

Happy Maths with Helen Morgan at SOLS

SOLS 24/7 is an International NGO offering an effective education program for the less fortunate youngsters. This centre is located at Kg. Lomunu Kibabaig; offering 2 years training program for the youth that mostly are from rural area. IWCKK supporting them through provision of food supplies and other daily provisions.

During this Community visit, IWCKK has given free set of Happy Maths to help the youth to nurture their interest in maths as well as to improve their communications skills. Since Happy Maths is not restricted to any language, learning maths in English through Happy Maths could help improve the youth's command of English

Some of the members of Executive Committee get together to deliberate matters to facilitate the smooth running of the Club meeting, various projects (community, social, training & development, fund raising activities); and overall Club administration
