

Merry Christmas

It is the most wonderful time of the year and a time for joyous gathering and feasting.

Family is everything to us. Life can give us beautiful friends but only true friends can give us a beautiful life.

With so many incidents happening around us, some from geopolitical situations and others from environmental catastrophes, let us spare a moment to reflect and hope and pray for a more peaceful world.

Merry Christmas to all

DC Lucia Goh